BYLAWS

ARTICLE I. FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the Society shall be the thirty first (31) day of August each year.

An annual meeting of the members shall be held on the first day of January of each year as determined by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors shall meet (4) times each year at any place selected by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors shall have the power to elect and remove officers and members of the Board of Directors.

PRESIDENT The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Society and shall preside at all meetings of the Society.

PRESIDENT ELECT The President Elect shall perform the duty of the President at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

FIRST VICE PRESIDENT The First Vice President shall be prepared to perform the duties of the President Elect or President in the absence of either.

SECOND VICE PRESIDENT The Second Vice President shall serve as a member of the Education and/or Seminar Committee.

DISTRICT OFFICERS shall be reimbursed for the necessary expenses incurred while acting as representatives of the Society at district meetings.

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY: Secretary shall be in charge of all organizational work at the general meetings of the Society. The Executive Secretary shall be the primary contact for all correspondence and shall be responsible for the preparation of the minutes of all meetings.

ARTICLE VI. EXPENSES

Carrying out the duties in the official capacity of Officer, Governor, or Committee Member for the Society shall be reimbursed for the necessary expenses incurred while acting in such capacity.

Mileage: Mileage shall be reimbursed for required functions such as Board Meetings, Committee Function, speaking engagements, etc. Meals shall be reimbursed if the function carries through normal meal times. Amounts must be reasonable.

Lodging: When required by distance or other circumstances to spend the night while carrying out society duties, lodging shall be reimbursed.

Miscellaneous: Expenses that include, but are not limited to, supplies and telephone necessary in carrying out the duties of the Society shall be reimbursed.

Expense Vouchers: Society expense vouchers, available from the Executive Secretary's office, must be completed and submitted for reimbursement.

ARTICLE VII. DUTIES OF STANDING COMMITTEES

As stated in Article X of the Constitution, the President, with the advice and consent of the Board of Governors, shall appoint a Legislative Committee.

This committee has primary responsibility for monitoring all legislation which affects the accounting and financial affairs of the Society. The chairman of this committee shall prepare a written report of the committee's activities for the year.

This committee reviews all proposed amendments to the Constitution and By-laws prior to their submission to the membership. Proposed amendments to the Constitution and By-laws must be submitted in writing to the Chairman of this committee.

The chairman of this committee shall prepare a written report of the committee's activities for the year. The overall chairmanship of this committee shall be held by the President of the Society.

It shall be the duty of this committee to verify that members are in good standing with the Society. Any member who is not in good standing shall be notified of the reasons therefor.

This committee shall have access to the society books at any time during the fiscal year. They shall perform a detailed audit of the Society's financial affairs at the close of the year.

The chairman of this committee shall prepare a written report of the committee's activities for the year. This committee shall be known as the ARTICLE VIII. EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITIES

In order to promote the educational activities of the Society, the President, with the advice and consent of the Board of Governors, shall appoint a Committee on Educational Activities.

It shall be the duty of this committee to recommend to the membership the educational activities of the Society.

ARTICLE IX. REPORTS AND PUBLICATIONS

An annual report shall be made to the membership as early as possible following the Annual Conference.
